Hon, A, S. Cleghorn reviews the club-life of Honolulu in an interesting manner. The plans of the Federal Agricul-tural Station are dealt with by T. F. an article on Wireless Telegraphy. The "New Era of Building in Honolulu," is the title of an illustrated article by W. E. Pinkham, showing the remarkable progress in the construc-tion of moder: buildings in Honolulu "Hawalian Calalashes," "Progress of the Hilo Railroad," "Laws Passed at the First Legislature of the Territory of Hawaii, 1901," all furnish valuable and interesting information. In the "Retrospent for 1901" the edftor of the Annual plainly shows his No Appropriation to Rebuild a Trail out for lack of funds.

Peking, Dec. 11.—An edict has ap-peared which bestows honors upon the late Li Hung Chang and upon Prince Ching and other officials for their participation in the peace negotiations. A most remarkable clause awards Yung Lu (who commanded the best disciplined troops which opposed the allies) the two-eyed peacock feather, for having protected foreigners against the Boxers.

It was announced from Shanghal late in August, 1900, that, according to written evidence which was then comreal author of the anti-foreign outbreaks in Peking and Tien Tsin. Yung Lu. who is a Manchu, was formerly Viceroy of Pechili and generalissimo of the Chinese army. At the time of the Empress Dowager's coup d'etat Yung Lu saved the life of the Emperor, Kwang Su. The rapid rise of Yung Lu to power is unprecedented in Chi-The Merchants' Parcel Delivery ness history. In four years he rose from a small military command to the msot important viceroyship and the highest military command in ... e empire. Yung Lu was the Chinese Imperial Treasurer at the time of the Boxer outbreak. He was appointed a Peace Commissioner in September.
